

SAIC Awarded $70 Million Contract by the Fleet and Industrial Supply Center Norfolk

Company to Provide Professional Support Services for Commander, Naval Installations Command (CNIC)

McLEAN, Va. and SAN DIEGO, Oct 29, 2009 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) (NYSE: SAI) today announced it has been awarded a prime contract by the Fleet and Industrial Supply Center Norfolk (FISCN) to provide professional support services for Commander, Naval Installations Command (CNIC) Headquarters and Chief of Naval Operations. The multiple award indefinite delivery/indefinite quantity contract has a one year base period of performance, four one-year options, and a total value of more than $70 million for SAIC, if all options are exercised. Work will be performed primarily in the National Capital Region.

CNIC enables the Navy to execute its mission through enterprise alignment of all shore installation support. Under this contract, SAIC will provide professional services including program management, engineering, logistics, and financial management. SAIC will also support CNIC management, organizational and business improvement efforts.

"We look forward to providing quality support services to help the CNIC as it continues to enable and enhance Navy combat power by providing effective and efficient shore services and support," said Tom Baybrook, SAIC senior vice president and business unit manager.
