SAIC Awarded Contract to Support Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Atlantic
--Company to Continue Providing Tactical Command and Control (C2) Integration Support to Department of Defense and Federal Agencies

SAN DIEGO and MCLEAN, Va., July 30, 2009 /PRNewswire-FirstCall via COMTEX News Network/ -- Science Applications International Corporation (SAIC) (NYSE: SAI) today announced that it has been awarded a prime contract by the Space and Naval Warfare Systems Center Atlantic (SPAWARSYSCEN Atlantic) to provide command and control integration support to the Department of Defense (DoD) and federal agencies. The multiple award, indefinite-delivery/indefinite-quantity contract has a one-year base period of performance and four one-year options. SAIC's prime contract has a total contract value of more than $196 million if all options are exercised. Work will be performed in Charleston, S.C., and Lexington Park, Md., by SAIC's wholly owned subsidiary Eagan, McAllister Associates, Inc. (EMA).

SPAWARSYSCEN Atlantic provides systems engineering and integration, configuration management, quality assurance, logistics, training, and test and evaluation in support of federal and DoD C4ISR (command, control, communications, computer, intelligence, surveillance and reconnaissance) requirements. Under the contract, SAIC will provide engineering and technical support services for the development, test and evaluation, and life cycle support of C4ISR systems and related equipment and subsystems.

"SAIC and its subsidiary EMA have been prime contractors supporting SPAWARSYSCEN Atlantic since 1999," said Debbie James, SAIC senior vice president and business unit general manager. "We are pleased to continue helping this important customer deliver integrated C4ISR capabilities and knowledge superiority to the warfighter."
